

Life Changing

by Deborah Kulish

About the Book

Jan Brooks is young, ambitious, and ready to fulfill her life's dreams. When she meets the handsome stranger, can happily ever after come true for her?

With everything checked off her life's to-do list, it was time for Jan Brooks to look to the future. She was accomplished with an MBA degree and a fulfilling career. Being an independent, rational woman, she normally did not react so impetuously. But, when it was love at first sight for the handsome stranger, she had to find out if he was the missing puzzle piece in her life.

The Happily Ever After series is one woman's journey in love, business, marriage, motherhood, and gracefully aging. And, just like everyone else, she can't go back and rewrite her story. Follow Jan's love story with the entire series of books; Life Changing, Moonlighting Bride, Christmas Runaway, Maternal Instincts, and Age Related.

Discussion Guide

1. Jan and Rob are very different people. But in what ways do you find them similar? Do their similarities outweigh their differences? How do their similarities cause problems in their relationship?
-

2. Does Jan date Rob because she truly loves him or to spite her friends and family? How is your answer reflected in the story?
3. What draws Jan and Rob together? What keeps them together?
4. Discuss how Jan and her best friends, Monica, Christie, and Gina, work through their conflicts. How do they or do not support each other with their issues?
5. Life Changing has created many memorable secondary characters, from Frank to Marjorie to Tracy and more. Did you have a favorite? Good or bad, what qualities made them come alive for you?
6. Were you ever frustrated by the choices Jan made? Did you empathize with her choices, despite feeling frustrated?
7. Was there a celebration, event, or issue that particularly interested you? Was it out of having had a similar situation or something else?
8. How much of Jan's identity changed after meeting her future husband? Do you think marriage will change her?
9. Do you anticipate that Jan will be happily married to Rob? Discuss situations in the story that express commitment or regrets to support your impressions?
10. What are the lessons in love that the author hopes readers will take away from the story? Was the story entertaining enough even with the lessons embedded throughout?
11. What is it about Jan's relationships that captivates us as readers? Do Jan and her friends and family remind you of other favorite novels?

Author Bio

Deborah Kulish is the author of the acclaimed series Happily Ever After, including LIFE CHANGING, MOONLIGHTING BRIDE, CHRISTMAS RUNAWAY, MATERNAL INSTINCTS, and AGE RELATED. She holds several degrees and has a wide range of experience writing for businesses and media. She lives in Metro Detroit, enjoying her life as a full-time indie author and managing her entrepreneurial activities.

Life Changing

by Deborah Kulish

Publication Date: April 7, 2021

Genres: Contemporary Fiction

Paperback: 142 pages

Publisher: Kindle Direct Publishing

ISBN-13: 979-8702988054